Kokura is the central district of Kitakyushu and the home of Kokura Castle. With many shopping arcades and commercial facilities, it is ideal for shopping and dining. Kokura is also home to the famous Tanga Market, a 100-year-old market known for its variety of fresh and gourmet foods. The market offers a wide range of fresh, seasonal products, including seafood, fruits, and vegetables. Kokura Castle, built in 1602, is a reconstruction of a samurai mansion and garden from the Edo period, and Shiro Terrace, a souvenir shop, is also located in the area. Kokura Original Yakiudon, a local dish, is also located in the area. Kitakyushu Manga Museum, dedicated to manga and anime culture, is also located in the area.

Surrounded by water on three sides, Kitakyushu serves a wide selection of seafood such as oysters, pufferfish, and crabs. A unique style of sashimi called "Kyushu-seki" that can only be tasted in Kitakyushu is popular. Please try local cuisine such as Kokura beef, Yakata Udon noodles, and Tobata champion noodles. For souvenirs, "Neji Choco" screw chocolate and "Kurogane" hard cookies, special to this city of steel, are recommended.
